CONTRIBUTIONS TO NEPALESE STUDIES
Editorial Policy

Contributions to Nepalese Studies publishes articles on Nepal focussed on the following areas:

- art and archaeology, history, historical-cultural forms;
- religion; folk studies;
- social structure, national integration, ethnic studies, population dynamics, institutional processes, development processes, applied linguistics and sociolinguistic studies;
- study of man, environment, development and geo-political setting of the Indus-Brahmaputra regions.

Papers, review articles and short reviews of new books on Nepal are welcome from both Nepali and foreign contributors. Articles should be original and written in English or Nepali.

The Editorial Board reserves the right to edit, moderate or reject the articles submitted.

The published articles are remunerated, but Centre for Nepal and Asian Studies retains the copyright on all articles published. Contributors will be given a copy of the journal and fifteen copies of offprints.

Opinions expressed in the articles or reviews are the authors' own and do not necessarily reflect the views of the publisher or the Editorial Board.

Notes to Contributors

Manuscripts should be typed double-spaced on A4 paper with a 4 cm margin on all four sides. The top copy should be submitted and photo/carbon copy retained by the author. The author should underline nothing except words which are to be italicised. Notes and references should be typed double-spaced on separate pages and will be included at the end of the article. The text should refer to notes numbered consecutively throughout the article, using raised numbers; bibliographical references should be cited in the text by the author’s last name, date of publication, and page number, e.g., (Bista 1965: 105) or if the author’s name is mentioned in the text, by the date and page reference only, e.g., (1965: 105). Entries in the references should be in alphabetical and chronological order of authors. They should include the details in the following order: name of the author(s) - surname first, date, title name of the periodical, volume number (Arabic numerals to be used throughout), pagination (for articles in periodicals and books with several authors), place of publication (and name of the publisher for a book). Examples of the style to be used are as follows:

Tables should be submitted on separate pages, numbered and with headings. Maps and text figures should be drawn in black waterproof ink about twice the intended final size, with lettering in soft pencil. Notations in the text should indicate where these are to appear. Plates should be not be less than intended final size. They should be printed on glossy paper. They should be titled and numbered.
